

Indiana has an excellent Privacy Law regarding phone calls. If I want to contact companies I have a business relationship with I will do so. I do not want to go back to harassing phone calls. Do not weaken Indiana's provacy laws. If anything is to be done, it would help to bring national laws up to Indiana's standard.